

Arizona Miner.

PRESCOTT, MARCH 23, 1867.

VERNON McCormick and wife, contrary to our advice, have gone to Tucson, but may be expected home in a few days. The Gila and Silver, are reported very high at present, rendering the crossing impossible, but we know our prior will make the trip across the latter at earliest possible date. He has never yet been at notable stream.

ELLS AND MINES.—The Atlatl Mill and Umpqua continue in prosperity, and are rolling the gold on a large scale. Woolsey's Ticonderoga Mill is following suit, only a good deal so—if we are to believe half we hear. The mill has "struck it" at last, and no mistake.

NEW NAME.—The Congressional Committee on Territories have been instructed to consider the expediency of changing the name of New Mexico to Santa. There should certainly be a Territory named after the lamented President, and Mexico is a meaningless name; but with all that we think it would be better to give the name of Lincoln to a new and more progressive Territory than New Mexico.

AND COTILLION PARTY.—Mr. Little, one of the proprietors of the New Theatre, now nearly completed, proposes to open the house on Thursday evening, April 4th, with a grand Ball or Cotillion Party, under the management of Messrs. Miller and Miller. We doubt not the party will be attended.

PHILISTINE.—Patsy Marley, a well known individual of the Filistinian persuasion, advertises an edition of his professional powers at the new theatre to-night. We notice the names of several actors here who are to participate in the enactment of hitting each others mugs, and Dan will sing a song and dance his best—all for Patsy was one of the Yavapai Rangers, and reported good on the "scamp."

DIANS AGAIN.—A HEAVY LOSS OF PROPERTY.—Some ten days since the return train from here to La Paz, belonging to the Arizona, was captured by savages near Date, and three men, drivers, murdered. The driver of mules was 18. The names of the murdered men have not been learned. The loss of property said to be over $5,000.

HOUSE STEALING.—Within the last few days several houses have been stolen from our immediate neighborhood. The thieves were promptly and the animals recovered. One of the men, named Melrose, said to be a California prison convict, is in custody. The others supposed to be numbered among the "reservists." Served them right.

DOUGLAS F. HOOPER & Co.—A change has recently been made in this well known firm, or more properly speaking, its membership has been increased by the admission of Major W. B. Hooper. Messrs. Barney and Whitting, who, with Hooper and Francis (Jack) Whitting, the originators, will continue the business of the firm in San Francisco and Fort Yuma, Cal., and at Arizona City and Maricopa Wells, in this Territory.

JOHN F. HOOPER will take a leave of absence for two years, and start early this spring for the east. Many friends in California and Arizona will join every enjoyment in his well earned recreation. Major Hooper will take charge of the Francisco business. Mr. Barney will provide Arizona, and the ever popular Joe Hooper Jack Hinton will "swing round the circle" at the City of Arizona.

THE FIRM OF HOOPER & Co. began business at Ft. Yuma in 1852, eleven years before the organization of Arizona. Its present establishment at the various points already named, are among the best of the kind, and the enterprise and responsibility the firm have won for it an eminent position. Arizona is an "institution" as fixed and familiar as the mountains and mines; and we record increasing prosperity with genuine satisfaction.

JOHN H. HALL, formerly mining recorder of El Dorado, died on the steamer Emerald, at Yuma, of congestion of the lungs, after a illness. He was buried at the cemetery at Yuma, Feb. 25. The remains were followed by a number of citizens, and Governor McCormick read the burial service. Mr. Hall well liked, and had friends throughout Arizona. He is said to have been a Mason, in high standing.

WALKER, of the first Legislature, is now connected with James S. Halestead, in opening the Butte gold and silver mine, on the Gila, 20 miles above Fort Yuma.

D. TUTTLE, also in the same Legislature, Mohave County, is a clerk for the Quartermaster at Fort Yuma.

GOVERNMENT AND TELEGRAPHS.

Washington letter of January 16th. The House Post Office Committee has a special meeting to-morrow, for the purpose of considering Mr. Washburn's proposition to construct telegraph lines along the routes to be under the control of the master General. There are several members of Congress and others, who are to be heard in favor of the measure. Master General Randall, who favors the measure, has accumulated a large mass of information from foreign Governments where it has been in successful operation for years, and he intends to lay it before the Committee. He believes it can be carried out, so it will not only be advantageous but relative to the Government. A similar measure is before the Senate Committee on Commerce and Post Roads, and it is favored by Messrs. Brown, of Missouri, and Senator Sherman, of Ohio. There seems to be a determination on the part of Congress to inaugurate some kind of a system under the control of the Government.

RECENT GEOGRAPHICAL KNOWLEDGE.—English paper, the London and China Telegraph, in discussing the question of communication with China, enlightens its readers as to the Pacific Railroad route as follows:

This route will be via of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Cincinnati, Ohio, onward to the capital of Indiana, thence across Illinois and Missouri to Omaha, in Nebraska, which point sixty miles have been covered, running westward into the wilderness by the old traders' route to Santa Fe, and a considerable distance of Indian territory, it enters Arkansas, from which the route crosses Utah, touching upon the Salt Lake. Running south of Colorado, it strikes the Red River at Fort Morgan, from which it makes its way across Nevada to San Francisco. The section of railway from San Francisco to the city of Nevada is already built, and as with the other completed portion of the line, has been available for transit. The Union Pacific Railroad will be completed, according to contract, in about eight years from the present time. Its length, as nearly as can be calculated, will be 2,592 miles.

DIARY OF J. WILKS BOOTH.

WASHINGTON, January 16th. The diary of J. Wilks Booth, taken from his body after his capture, is now in the possession of the proper Investigating Committee, having been handed over to it by the authorities. For some reason its contents were not used on the trial. It shows that he was an agent of the Confederate Government, and received money from it, and at one time at least the plan was to kidnap Lincoln. It is believed to implicate only Booth and Harrod in the assassination. An entry was made on Friday, the 21st of April, one week after the murder, shows that it must have been written in a perfect agony of mind. It discloses his position, with a broken leg, in the midst of a swamp, alone, an outcast, an assassin, weighed down by his guilt and a feeling that God would refuse him his forgiveness. It is altogether such a cry of human agony as seldom finds expression in words.
